

Editors

SoundWords

© SoundWords, online: 16.01.2021, updated: 30.04.2023

© SoundWords 2000–2023. All rights reserved.

All articles are for private use only. They can also be distributed privately without demand. Commercial reproductions of any kind are prohibited. Publications on other internet pages are only possible after consultation.

Dirk Schürmann, born in 1962, married, two children, living in Wuppertal, was privileged to grow up in a Christian family where his parents taught him to appreciate the Word of God and where he also found faith in the Lord Jesus. He is especially grateful to his father for making him aware of the importance of the fact that in Christian teaching, ministry and pastoral care, Christ must be the central focus and goal, not theology, activity and philanthropy. Dirk Schürmann works in the chemical industry in the commercial-technical field. He attends Christian meetings in Gevelsberg-Vogelsang. At the age of 16, he was first exposed to English Brethren literature through a gift from his grandfather. Over the years he realized more and more what a great spiritual treasure still lies hidden here for German Christians. Since 2000, he has been co-editor (and co-founder) of the website www.soundwords.de, and he has devoted much of his time to making this literature available to Christians through this site.

Stephan Isenberg, born in 1969, married to Ulrike, four children (Ruben, Clemens, Tabea, Josia), converted to Jesus Christ in 1990. He works in the dental industry in the EDP sector (www.evident.de). He finds his spiritual home in a Christian assembly in Remscheid-Lennep. He is co-editor (and co-founder) of the website www.soundwords.de since 2000 and maintains a more evangelistic site at www.fbibel.de. He got to know the writings of the so-called Brethren movement at the age of 21. From the beginning he was impressed by the fact that they were not so much theological works, but rather writings that, as Luther once called it, “drive Christ”. So it is also his desire that through SoundWords Christ – and He alone – be magnified.